

ISDE 2007, Chile

Metzeler 6Days Extreme is THE fitment at the International 6Days.

The share has been of over 60 % among the 521 riders coming from 30 countries all over the world.

La Serena, Chile. The legendary International 6 Days, often called the Olympics of Enduro motor sports took the riders over a whole range of terrain, from the desert coastal dunes of the Chilean coast into the more mountainous regions inland. And after though and demanding 6 racing days, on the final day it was the Italian squad which took the victory. The KTM's factory rider Alessandro Belometti on Metzeler 6 Days Extreme, was one of the strongest pillars of this excellent team. "Viva Italia".

Belometti in action

After the great success of the World Enduro Championship 2007 by winning all 3 titles for the third time, Metzeler 6Days Extreme dominate also the International Six Days Enduro with a share of 61 %.

The Metzeler team thanks all its riders for a very successful year.

Overall results:

E1: Mattila, Finland – Guerrero, Spain – Salvini, Italy
E2: Aubert, France – Belometti, Italy – Ljunggren, Sweden
E3: Caselli, USA – Tarkkala, Finland – Planet, France

World Trophy:

1. Italy: Belometti, Botturi, Belotti, Salvini, Dini, Micheluz

